And they call it puppy love.

Being outside is like being on an ice rink.

Trisha, you don't fool us!

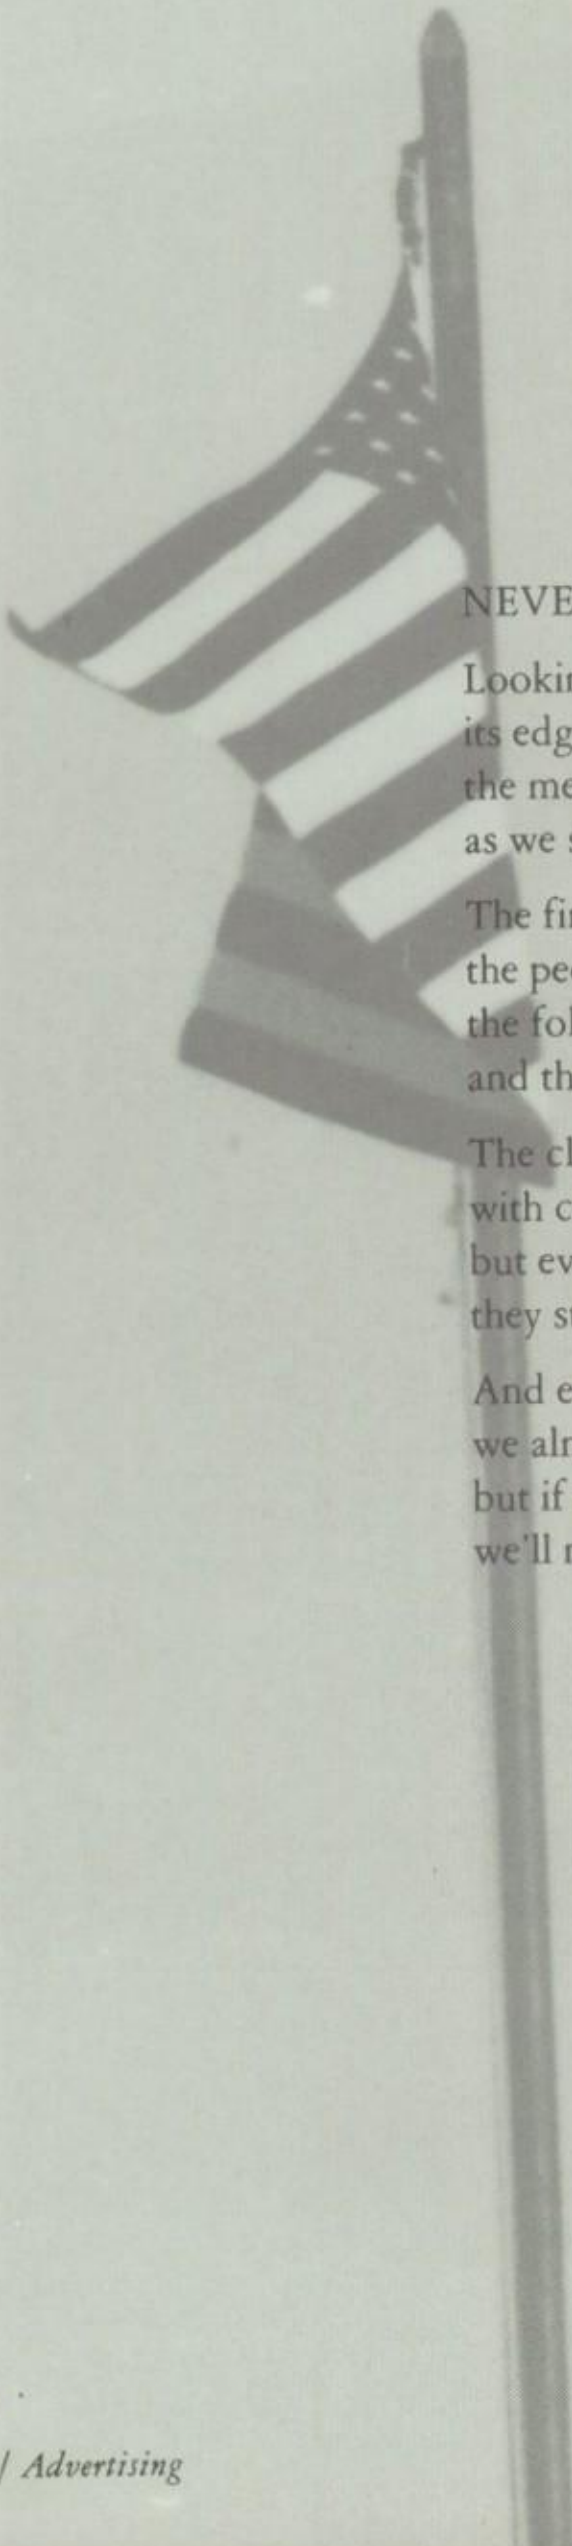

Lisa doing what she always does, "Nothing."

When Steve Turner talks people listen.

Football anyone?

NEVER SAY GOODBYE

Looking through a book of memories
its edges yellow with age,
the memories, they come back to us
as we slowly turn each page.

The first few pages are of our friends
the people we've come to know.
the following pages of teachers who cared
and those who helped us grow.

The clubs and sports are next in line
with coaches that liked to fuss,
but even though they were this way,
they still believed in us.

And even now as we close the book
we almost start to cry,
but if we keep our memories
we'll never say good-bye.

— Rhonda Massey
